WATER SUPPLY BILLS PASSED.

THAT KNOWN AS THE MAYOR'S BILL IS ONE OF THEM.

The Other Provides for the Appointment by the Governor of a State Water Supply Commission, Upon Which Is Conferred Almost Autocratic Powers.

ALBANY, May 3 .- The passage by the Senate to-day and subsequent concurrence by the Assembly in the Senate amendments to the Tompkins bill and the Agnew bill complete the series of water supply bills agreed upon after many conferences held by the representatives of the city of New York and of Westchester, Putnam and Ulster counties and the various interests affected by such legislation.

The Agnew bill provides for the appointment by the Governor, within fifteen days after the approval of the bill, of five citizens of the State to constitute the State Water Supply Commission. Under this bill no municipal corporation or other civil division of the State shall henceforth have power to acquire, take or condemn lands for water purposes until it has first submitted the maps and profiles to the State Water Commission and such maps and profiles have been approved by the commission.

It is provided that within ninety days after an application shall have been roade to the commission for power to condemn property for water supply purposes the commission shall pass upon such applicabe subject to review by certiorari proceed-

The Tompkins bill, known as Mayor McClellan's bill, provides for the appointment of three Commissioners by the Mayor of New York city, to constitute the local Water Board of the city of New York, who Water Board of the city of New York, who shall have power to investigate and report to the Board of Estimate and Apportionment upon the available sources of water supply. Upon the approval of said report and of the maps and plans submitted therewith, or any parts thereof, the city of New York, through its Corporation Counsel, may apply to the Supreme Court for the appointment of commissioners of estimate and appraisal, who shall have power to condemn such sources of water supply when the plans therefor have been approved by the State Water Board, and not otherwise. The salary of the Commissioners is to be $12,000 per year each, payable by the city of New York, and they can appoint a secretary and other subordinates.

of New York, and they can appoint a secretary and other subordinates.

By a provision of the bill the city of New York is limited to the Ashokam reservoir, in the county of Ulster. Provision is also made that in any county from which additional sources of water supply are taken under the provisions of this bill the various towns, villages and cities shall be permitted to tap the mains established by the city of New York and take therefrom water for local purposes at a price not to water for local purposes at a price not to exceed the price charged to the citizens of New York and in an amount not to ex-of New York and in an amount not to exceed the per capita amount used by the city of New York.

The bill also contains provisions for the paying of indirect as well as direct damages to those whose property is affected by the taking of water sources. Provision is also made for the taxing of the property which is acquired by the city locally for county purposes.

In the original bill commissioners were subject to removal by the Mayor. At the request of the Merchants' Association of New York, an amendment was accepted by the Mayor and finally incorporated in the bill, providing that the commissioners should only be removable for cause and after a trial uron charges.

only be removable for cause and after a trial upon charges.

At Gov. Higgins's request, there was also an additional amendment, providing that no land should be acquired by the city of New York under this act until the plans therefor had been approved by the State Board of Water Supply.

It is understood that the bills will be approved at an early date and that plans will be submitted speedily to the State board by the city of New York, looking to the immediate acquiring of additional sources of water supply by the city.

THE MINORITY GAS REPORT.

They Dissent From the Recommendations for a State Commission.

ALBANY, May 3 .- The minority report, submitted by Senator Grady and Assem-blyman Palmer to-day from the Stevens Investigating committee, reads:

Investigating committee, reads:

The undersigned, a minority of the Joint committee of the Senate and Assembly appointed pursuant to joint resolution adopted March 18, 1908, for the purpose of investigating and examining into the lighting situation in the city of New York, do hereby respectfully report that we dissent most particularly from the "specific recommendations" reported by such majority, and from the bill submitted, in accordance therewith, for the creation of a State commission, to be vested with powers now vested in the Legislature and providing for a procedure which, whether intended in that direction, could easily be employed for the blackmail of the corporations affected or their subordination to the political demands of a majority of such commission.

We take evention to what we must record affected or their subordination to the political demands of a majority of such commission.

We take exception to what we must regard as a want of fairness on the part of the majority of the committee in dealing with the municipal lighting of the city of New York. If it was deemed necessary to state that the Mayor had disapproved the action of the Commissioner in signing the contracts for 1904, justice required that the reference be accompanied by the statement of the Mayor that he had entirely satisfied himself that all that Commissioner Oakley had done in that connection was entirely in good faith and the Comptroller of the City of New York had testified that, while the contracts thus signed by Mr. Oakley were not ideal in their character, yet it must be said in that behalf that they were the best contracts for public lighting that the city had ever made, both as to the supply of gas and of electricity.

We find no reference in the report to the fact that the committee investigated some of the contracts made with the Consolidated Gas Company by at least one private corporation, with a view to secertaining whether such contracts were irtended as inducement to or a reward for official favors and political influence. The testimony upon that point thoroughly refuted the charge made that the gas companies were being exploited for profitable contracts in exchange for political favors, and proved the utter baselessness of the oft repeated sensational statement that there was a $15,00,000 contract in existence in connection with the Astoria gas plant and that it had been entered into as the price of political friendship and official pretection.

We have attempted but have been unable to release the provent and the proved the proved the provent of the pr as the price of political friendship and official protection.

We have attempted but have been unable to make such comparison as would justify a concurrence in or an intelligent criticism of the figures submitted in connection with the report of the majority of the committee and the conclusions based upon and such arrangements and deductions from such figures as are submitted. We have not been able to complete this work in the time which it was possible for us to devote to its prosecution, and in omitting any other reference to the report of the majority of the cerumittee we are not to by inderstood as accepting or rejecting any statement therein contained, except as herein specifically referred to.

The Assembly Passes the Raines Bill. ALBANY, May 3.—The Assembly to-day passed Senator Raines's bill amending the Raines law so as to put the "Raines law hotels" out of business. Senator Raines refused to concur in the Assembly amendment to his bill, and it was necessary to strike them from the bill and pass the bill in the form he desired. Assemblyman McManus's bill establishing a hospital in New York city for the treatment of people regarded as habitual drunkards passed the Assembly.

Revekes His Order Suspending a Veteran Who Refused to Pay Party Assessment. ALBANY, May 3 .- Edwin A. Doty, the employee in the department of State Fiscal Supervisor Bender, who was recently suspended on charges alleging clerical errors in bookkeeping and who was to have had a hearing by Bender under the Veieran law to-morrow, was notified to-day that the order of suspension had been revoked and that he would be transferred to the office of the State Commissioner of Agricul-

This action was taken by Bender to stifle the investigation which had been started upon his initiative, but which had become too hot for him. Doty had a record of nine years faithful service in State employ. Last fall he refused to contribute to the campaign fund to which every other employee of Bender's department was com-campaign fund to which every other employee of Bender's department was compelled to give. From that time Doty was marked for slaughter, as Bender was the treasurer of the local campaign committee of the Republican organization and the collector of the boodle.

The veterans about the capitol took up the case, and the feeling against Bender was so intense that the State Department Commander and the Judge Advocate General of the G. A. R., entered into the matter with enthusiasm, and every arrangement was made to attend the hearing and put up the stiffest kind of a fight to protect the veteran clerk in his rights. Further than this, the State Civil Service Reform Association was notified and promptly replied that it would be represented by counsel in the defense of Doty, and also in what was expected would be the prosecution of Bender.

Bender did not seem to appreciate the difficulties in which he had gotten himself until he was summoned to the Executive Chamber on Tuesday and told that he must do something to make good or it might not be pleasant for him in the future. The result was the order of to-day, revoking his order of suspension.

It is the general opinion that the matter having reached the Governor he should take further action. If he close not call Bender to account for his defiance of the State law, all of which can be readily proved, it is suggested that the State Civil Service Reform Association should be asked to take the matter in hand.

MORE PATRONAGE FOR MORGAN.

MORE PATRONAGE FOR MORGAN. Elsberg's Metropolitan Election Bills Pass the Senate.

ALBANY, May 3.-The Senate to-day passed Senator Elsberg's bill giving Supt. Morgan of the Metropolitan Elections district the right to appoint 150 permanent deputies and a secretary at a salary of $2,000. Of the permanent deputies, fifty will receive $1,200 and fifty $900 a year each, and the other fifty $6 a day for forty days service around election time. Of the ordinary thirty day deputies to be appointed the number is cut from 600 to 400. The Superintendent's clerk is authorized to administer oaths. Ten deputies may be designated to administer oaths in the investigation of elec-minister oaths in the investigation of election cases.

Inspectors of election on registration day shall transfer to individual cards the names and answers made by all persons registering, which are to be sent to Supt. Morgan and used by Chairman Odell in connection with his 77,000 card index of the 600,000 voters of New York city.

This bill was passed by a vote of 20 to 18; Senators Brackett, Cassidy, Hinman and Fechter voting with the Democrats against it. Senators Elsberg, Gardner, L'Hommedieu, McEwan, Wilcox and Brown changed their votes on final passage.

The Senate also passed Senator Elsberg's bill revising the last day of registration.

votes on final passage.

The Senate also passed Senator Elsberg's bill, moving the last day of registration to within three weeks of election day, so as to give Supt. Morgan more time to investigate the registry rolls.
